“ The smartest man I've ever known. I'll never forget the 10 million deep, crazy conversations we've had. You being gone seems so unreal. Who will I preach to, who will be my therapist and teacher of life's conspiracies lol. You meant so much to me and so many others. I'm so sorry to the family, his mom and sisters and most of all angel and Jaden, you two were his heart and he never stopped trying to be the best dad he could be. He was was so rare and unique and the realest guy around, always staying true to his roots and being proud of who he was and where he came from. A heavy, hurtful loss for sure. Ill miss you so much my friend .

“ i can remember we were always happy to see each other whenever it would be a long period of time of not hanging out or just working all the time, but when we would bump into each other we both had the biggest smiles on our faces. We were attached at the hip from the moment we met. you'll forever be my road dog and i'm gonna miss you.

“ i'll never forget the things we did and the times we had, Yes we did struggle but me, You and jaden always found ways to be happy. I'll never forget the music we listened to and how you would always talk abt how what happened to them or if they were songs you britt or grandma or matt or jess listened to or just you back in high school. I remember you talking about how when yall was kids yall would do crazy things like seek out or bust the music in the house really loud or play with quarters till yalls fists bled in school all kinds of things, the history we talked about and how u thought i shouldn't listen to my social studies teacher bc u thought we wernt being taught right in school, I remember on the way to grannies house u let me hold the steering wheel to learn how to drive cuz thats how u were taught, when we talked about politics or when we had tiny little fights bc u said uwere bat man and we argued bc i said you wern't for like an 1hr. How we cooked and cleaned from time to time and played around. How you and Jaden would play video games and you would get mad bc he would beat you at them. How me n u played foot ball and u would talk abt how strong and bulked up. How we would talk abt wht the gov does to us and how they lie and how we talked about how our neighbor and how they creeped us out . I loved everything we did together and word can't be put in here but the one that sticks with me the most is how u said u were gonna get me weed when i was 25 and we would do it together and now u won't be able to do that for me lol. even if at times we hated each other we always managed to be best friends at the end of the day and now that ur gone i wont have anybody to do the things we did or have the talks about the things we talked about. Dad i wanted to say thank u 4 everything u did do 4 us, I also wanted to say that ur smile is something that was so special in my eyes bc u rarely ever did but i know when we would talk or sing or sing or whatever if u smiled it was always a good thing but dad u were loved by people but u were loved most with me and jaden and we can't ever forget u!!! we love you Dad
Love, Jaden Ray and Angel Elizabeth ur boy ad ur baby girl;)
