“ It was an honor to meet Andrew at my birthday party 3 years ago. We kept in touch briefly. He was a nice, caring guy who left this earth too soon. He played me guitar a couple times. He was very talented. I'm so sorry to have just learned of his passing and prayers and my condolences go out to the family. May he rest in peace.

“ Andrew will forever have a place in my heart. He was a special and gifted person, full of love to give to everyone. The songs he wrote will always be with me, as will his voice. My prayers and thoughts are with Andrew's family, as they create new lives without his presence.

Andrew will be missed! May his music live on through the lives of other musicians. I will miss you, Andrew. There will forever be a special place in my heart for you.

“ Drew was a man of many gifts. He was an athlete, a musician, often a comedian and always a friend - to everyone. To know him was to love him. I was fortunate enough to not only have known Drew, but to have been close friends with Drew. I played sports with him, played in the band with him, grew up with him and stayed in touch with him despite moving far away. Despite his health struggles, Drew was happy when I spoke to him last month. He was optimistic, too, as always. He was thoughtful, he was a giver, he was more of a brother than a friend. That was his gift to me. I will miss him greatly, but I know we'll be reunited someday. He accepted God's gift to us - Jesus - and lived out His message of love and hope. Thanks, Drew, for sharing your gifts with us. Rest easy, brother.

“ *I never met Andrew in person, but chatted with him on FB. My son has MS and I learned he had MS and we chatted about that. My son got MS in 2005 and Andrew would answer my questions about it because I didn't know that much about it. He was good to text with and I started praying for him and his MS. He talked about his Mother a lot and his music and how mean some people in his neighborhood were to him. My son is doing good on two shots a week, but started a new infusion medicine we pray works yesterday. He would only get two infusions a year if this works. I am truly sorry for the loss of Andrew. My prayers go out to his Mother and daughter and family and friends. May God hold him in His arms. 🙏
