“ We met Barbara about seven years ago when we moved next door to her. She was the kindest, sweetest person a neighbor could have. Always blew the horn and waved when she went by. Going to miss seeing her. Freddie and Sheila Bell.

I loved Barbara so much. She was feisty, mischievous, fun person to grow up with and a wonderful mother and inspiration as an adult. She is playing tricks, running and playing now in heaven with Gene, Grandmother, Granddaddy and all of our other relatives there. UNTIL we see each other again GO FLY HIGH cousin !!!! <3
