Though he has played his final round, his legacy remains in the countless lives he touched. Whether he was helping a friend in need or simply enjoying a Sonic Coke on a sunny afternoon, he lived with a generous heart and a steady hand. He taught us that the best way to live is to be there for others, and while he may be off the course, he will forever be the guiding spirit in our own games of life. May he rest in eternal peace, enjoying the perfect fairway and the sweetest refreshments.

“ Barry and I are first cousins. His mother and mine were sisters. I have so many childhood memories of playing baseball together, playing in the woods and gullies, playing army, and shooting off fireworks together. It was always a treat to spend the night at his house for my brother and I. As we grew up and got married and I moved out of state, we sorta lost contact. I recently had got his correct phone number and we had been talking again. Barry thank you for being a special person in my life. I will miss having a conversation with you, Rest in peace dear cousin . ❤️ Love, Shelia Jan Dodd

“ Barry was always the same no matter, high school(class of 1975), sacking groceries at E. W James & Sons, the Friday nights after work eating all the pizza we could eat at Village Inn or just in passing on the street. Thanks Barry for your friendship.
