“ How do you express the loss of a Friend who was a huge part of your life? Always good times together, always laughing even during bad times and making you laugh too. I can still hear her saying my name in my head and always will. So beautiful, so smart, capable and loyal. You don't find many Friends in life like Belinda. It's comforting to think of her with Mother Mabel again, wrapped in her arms. I will think of you with a smile, then sadness because you are gone from us. I love you, Harold. Only April and I know why I called you that. Just another funny memory of our Friendship. Rest easy my Friend.

“ Belinda has been my friend since grammar school. We graduated 8th grade, High School, and went to West TN Business College together. I'm so glad we stayed in contact over the years. Our girl's day out won't be the same without her. I love you Belinda and will miss you my precious friend. Until we meet again...
