“ I did not know this lovely woman but I have known and been friends with her son, Dana, for many years. I remember vividly the time when he went through the long process with his father prior to his passing away and remember him and his family now. This is tough, Dana - so very tough.

Love and best wishes.

“ Bethel and E.L. were my second set of parents, all the kids were my other siblings. We would run into each other unexpectedly while on vacation in places like Canada. Even when they left Illinois we all kept in touch. My Mom loved Bethel like a sister. Our whole family mourns her loss.

“ The memory I will cherish the most will be all the times Mrs. Bethel & I sang together. We sang Hank Williams "Hey Good Lookin'", Hymns, & our favorite was Loretta Lynn's "You ain't woman enough to take my man". We could really get into that last song :) Mrs. Bethel had the sweetest heart & was always ready for any activity, she would always say "whatever you want hunny". I was blessed to love & be loved by Mrs. Bethel Taylor.
