“ It has been many years since I had seen or spoken with Betty Ann, but I hold fond memories of her in school and at the grocery store (where our families would run into each other on Saturdays, and one of us would wind up going home with the other). I will never forget this because my Daddy was not one to let me go easily, but her sweet voice and disposition could charm him every time. I will cherish those memories always. I pray for her loved ones, especially family that are left to continue without her. May God comfort you all until you meet again.
