“ Betty and James Edward live next door to me, not long after they got Buddy, their dog, he got loose one day and I ran him up the road, it seemed like about a mile but I'm sure it wasn't, got him for her. She was so thankful. We would talk about it often and laugh. She would say, " I couldn't catch him and you just took off up the road after him and got him" She said he remembers you doing that. She will be forevermore missed. My God be we you and comfort you as only he can. Praying for you all
