“ My Dear Friend George: I remember Betty's my kindnesses when Patsy and I and the children moved into the parsonage on Dixie Street in Lexington in 1980. She was so gracious to both of us and made things so comfortable for us to move in after you two. S he was such a kind a wonderful person. Only those of us who have lost a pastor's spouse can ever know what a loss they are to us.

My prayers and thoughts are with you, my friend.
