“ Growing up I always looked up to and admired Billy. Sometimes he was so full of himself... Mr Macho, but he loved our mama and always came by in the bigrig just to see her.(Not as macho as he acted). He was protective of his sisters. He was funny and smelled like cologne. His fragrance would linger months after he left. He was a good hugger. I also loved getting Billy hugs. He loved God, church , his family, and driving that Big Truck. He use to say he had "it" and that was a running joke between us sister's and him. Well Billy you were right, you definitely had "it". You have a big beautiful smile that lit up the room, a sparkling personality and so many people who loved you. I hope you are in heaven having a wonderful reunion with Judy, mama, Janie, Danny, Leon and Clarence Wayne. Peace my brother. I will always remember you with great administration and love. Thank you for rescuing me a couple of times from bad situations. You are my hero forever.

“Daddy I just can't seem to find the words to say. Thank you for everything you did for me, for raising me to be the woman I am. When I feel weak I remember the strength you raised me to have. I love you and miss you to the moon and back. Give mom and big hug and kiss for me.
