“ Even though I haven't seen or talked to him in years, he will always be known to me as Uncle Bobby. I remember as a young child the wonderful fun times when I would go for a visit during the summer. He loved to fish, so we always went fishing. He was a very kind and loving person. I am sure he will be greatly missed by his family. My sympathy to the Estes family. May God bring them peace and comfort today and in the days ahead.
