“ Bobby Joe is a huge memory of my growing up in Whiteville. My brothers worked for him in their younger years and he was always in Royal and 100 Cafe when i was young and worked there. He was always picking on us and making us laugh. He and Mike had some fun when they were together and of course Junior and Peggy were good friends. He will be missed by Whiteville, no doubt. Prayers for all the family. Love all you girls!
