“ When I was a mid, my former Uncle Bobby was the owner of a honky tonk out on HWY 22S called The Wheel In. From what I can remember, it was a popular place. While he was cleaning and restocking, he used to take Regina and whichever cousins might be around with him to let is shoot pool for free. I thought nothing was more fun - except for perhaps riding in the back of his long brown Lincoln LTD. He was always so good to us kids. He never called me anything but Bub-a-dub. I loved him very much. After he and my aunt divorced when I was little, I saw him only here and there for the rest of my life. Still, he was kind and friendly, and I remember him with love. When I was little, Uncle Bobby would help my Uncle Leon coach the Century Electric women’s softball team. Every inning when our team would get the final out of the inning, he would always shout, “That’s just THREE!” Always the jokester 🤪. I’m going to miss him very much, and I hurt today fir my cousin, Regina and his sister, my Aunt Katherine. Much love to his wife and the rest of his family. It is such hard business watching our loved ones pass.
