“ In 1972 Carol came to our house and asked to buy the lot next door to build a house for his family. Our Mother was living alone there and we all thought it would be a good thing.

Carol's wife Opal, was a good friend and helper to Mother and Andy was a great playmate to all our young visitors. Carol has been the last one left there for some time and I suspect he was ready to go be with Opal.

May God bless all your family,
