“ Losing another of one of my first cousins that I didn't get to know very well. Sad the only times we see or hear about each other is times like this. I am so sorry for your loss to all of you. . Just because our families lived so far from each other doesn't mean our family love is not there. It's not easy losing someone you love but he's out of his sickness now. My love and prayers to all of you.
