“ My dear, sweet friend--fellow Decatur Countian, and recently re-found chum, Charlene was always a sweet personality, and she matured into the epitome of Christian fortitude, as she struggled with health issues and life's trials. A supremely talented individual--her grasp of the written word was astounding. We shared and often discussed our love for writing. Condolences and prayers are with her husband, her son and daughter, and her many relatives and friends, as we all pass through this valley of grief. Our journey here is so terribly short; thank God we do not have to walk it alone. I won't forget you, Charlene! Roxie Milam Wallace

“ A dear and classy lady I am so blessed to call my Auntie. .. She was a true Christian woman that built everyone up around her. Never wanted anyone to feel offended or unwanted and went out of her way to make you feel welcomed in her presence. I loved her dearly and am thankful for God's grace that will allow me to see her again!
