Charles Essary was one of the "pillars of Sand Ridge Baptist Church" when we joined that church family, some thirty plus years ago. He was such a "role model" for everyone he met, no matter what their age was. His relationship with Jesus as his Lord was evident in his contagious "smile" and in his conversations. We never heard him speak a bad word about anyone in all the years we knew him. We've lost a dear friend and one who will be deeply missed by us and all who knew him. Prayers for Judy and all the family, especially Joseph who Charles spent much time with, as a very young little boy and poured "love" into his heart. In Christ Love, Nickie and Charlotte Harris

Charles was my first cousin, we lived close together growing up and we were inseparable in our younger years. We joined the Air Force the same day. He got out in four years. I stayed for 22 and have never lived back in Tennessee. I do have great memories of growing up in Henderson County. I loved Charles like a brother. We stayed in touch for over 60 years. He was my reliable source on Tennessee happenings as things from long ago started fading from my memory. My condolences go out to Judy and rest of Charles's family.
