“ David Lawler (dad) was a very honest,well-known, well liked, great Doctor, husband, dad who spent time with his patients,wife,and children. He brought his family from Oxford Mississippi to Lexington TN in 1977 to be home again with his family of so many that I can't name his dad and mom were very proud of him for the man he turned out to be.

David (dad) wanted the best for all his family. I feel I may have disappointed him by not following his footsteps of taking on his business which now I do regret but he loved me anyway and pushed me to be a respectful person and to respect myself in front of all. I hoped I did not fail his wishes. I love and miss my dad so much and how I wished I could have been better. He cared for me and he loved me and the rest of our family.

I want to tell him someday soon that he is a great man when I see him in Heaven. To all that knew him and my family I want to say thank you for your comments of the person he was to all.

Now he is in Heaven talking Jesus's ears off and wanting to try fit him with glasses or contacts.

Dad , I will see you soon with open arms.

Love your oldest son

“ To the Lawler family I want to take this time to say that I appreciate the time that I had to get to know him, and to be able to be able to call him my friend. Times when I had a eye appointment with him before he retired, I would always ask him if I were the only one that he had to see that day, because we would just talk about everything , and he always would take the trime to sit there and talk. the days of chair side manners has gone, but he always had that chair side manners. He will be greatly missed by the community, and his church. A true friend.
