

Danny L. Bruce

August 13, 2014

Danny L. Bruce, 61, formerly of Lexington, died at his Parsons, TN. home on Wednesday, August 13, 2014 surrounded by loving family and friends. He had fought a courageous battle with cancer, but is now pain free and in his heavenly home. Danny retired after 32 years with the TN National Guard, but his true love was always farming. He was preceded in death by his parents, Wilma and Jones Bruce; his brother, Randy Bruce; and his step children, Chris and Bethany Crownover. He leaves behind his wife, Vicki, who will love him forever; his daughter, Eliabeth Bruce and husband Chris of Tybee Island, GA.; his son, Dylan Crownover; a brother, Greg Bruce; and a special step granddaughter, Malory Hollowell of Chattanooga. Services will be conducted by Bro. Greg Stanford and music by John Hayes at Reed's Chapel in Lexington on Friday, August 15, 2014 at 3PM. Visitation will begin at 10AM followed by service. Burial will be at Sand Ridge Cemetery. The family has humbly requested in lieu of flowers that monetary or non-perishable food items be donated to Calvary Baptist Church Food Bank at 254 Main St., Parsons, TN. or to the Decatur County Carl Perkins Center. Pallbearers to serve are close family friends; Mike Oliver, Floyd Snow, Danny Powers, Jimmy White, Mark Denmon, Dwight Cotham, and Chad Anderson. Honorary pallbearers are Larry Halters, Mike Jones, and David Veteto.
