

Dennie F. Flanagan

July 15, 1938 - January 13, 2021

On Wednesday, January 13, 2021, Dennie Farrell Flanagan passed from this world to his Heavenly home. He was Baptist in belief and attended Second Baptist Church since 1965.

Dennie was born July 15, 1938 to the late J.B. and R.D. Jordan Flanagan of the Juno Community. He attended Juno School and graduated from Lexington High School in 1957. During his senior year of high school he joined the U.S. Navy. He served 2 years of active reserve at Millington Naval Air Station. He then spent 2 years active duty at Key West Naval Air Station, followed by 2 years inactive reserve.

He was an auto body repairman and was known through out the area for his expertise in the trade. He worked with his brother, Leon, for many years, then worked with his son, Drew, at Drew's Body Shop until his retirement.

Dennie is survived by his wife of 55 years, Brenda Sellers Flanagan. They were blessed with 2 children, Tiffany Kendra Flanagan Rogers (David) and Drew Lane Flanagan. He is also survived by 1 sister, Ann Delaney; and many nieces and nephews. He was preceded in death by 2 brothers, Leon Flanagan and Travis Flanagan; 2 sisters, Jimmie Von McPeake and an infant Gerald Don Flanagan.

Visitation will be on Friday from 4PM-9PM and Saturday from 10AM until service. Funeral services will be on Saturday, January 16 at 2PM at Reeds Chapel with burial to follow in Lexington Cemetery. The family has requested that donations be given to either of his favorite charities, St. Jude Children's Hospital or Carl Perkins Center for Child Abuse in Lexington.

“ Tiffany I am so sorry for your loss. Your dad was a warm and good hearted soul. He always gave me a hug and would joke until he got a laugh. I pray for Drew who lost his best friend, and your mom who will miss him so. I pray that God will heal your broken hearts and give you strength to face the days ahead. Love you all.
