EULOGY

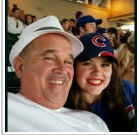

Dennis was born February 7, 1955 and went home to be with the Lord October 18, 2013. Along his journey, Dennis touched many lives and one would have a very difficult, if not impossible time trying to find an enemy. Dennis loved people and people loved him. One life in particular that was deeply touched by Den is a very dear friend whom we will always consider part of our family. No one could express who Dennis was any better than his words have and I would like to share these words with you.

Dear Anita, Glenn, Barry, Pat, Jerry

When I had the privilege of first meeting all of you Dennis was only 18. So many years ago but how quickly the time has passed. I always liked Dennis. His humor could make anyone laugh and he was always such a joy to talk with. That really expresses it all for the last 40 years I have known him, as I grew to love him as my brother-in-law and friend. Dennis had a soft and tender heart, loved the Lord, loved his family, loved his country and truly loved the animals the Lord entrusted in his care...and for someone having never gotten a college degree he was extremely smart! What a love of history (especially military) and quick recollection of historical facts he had. He would have been a great high school teacher. I'm so glad these last few days he was surrounded by those he loved and who loved him. What a reunion he and your mom and dad must be having! My prayers have been with you all at this very difficult time and will continue to be in the days ahead. Sunday, as you all celebrate the life of Dennis....I will also be celebrating as I recall the many memories I also shared with him..... He was a wonderful brother-in law whom I will continue to miss and love. May God bless you all and comfort your hearts with His wonderful Grace and Love.

“ Dennis found out I was saving tabs for St. Jude and recycling cans , putting the funds in a saving account for the grand kids. He would bring his cans by and drop them off on a regular basis. I would find them setting on my car porch every few weeks. He will be missed.

“ Oh Den, how I do miss you! I am back home trying to return to my routine but you are permeating my thoughts.....so many memories. My heart is warmed thinking of you with Ma and Dad. You suffered so much in the final weeks. I thank God that he answered my prayer and didn't prolong your pain and he let me be with you when you passed from us to Him, crossing that great divide into Heaven. My thoughts are filled with imagining how it might have been when you met Him face to face, and then the smiles when you were saw Ma and Dad. My heart overflows with joy! I look forward to our reunion!

Much love,
Pat
