“ I LOVE Mrs.Eddie Sue & her entire family. She was literally like a second mom when I was a child.The only time I didn't like her too much was when my mom would have her give me a Toni perm. I'm not sure how or why she got stuck with that job. We always did school clothes shopping and those are some treasured memories. I still crave her pimento cheese sandwiches.She made the best. I don't eat peanut butter cookies because I ate so many at her house one day that I made myself sick. Piano playing at church..so, so, many memories. She was truly one of the finest women I have ever known and she spread happiness wherever she was.The world will not be as good without her here but Heaven has gained an angel!
