“ I'll never forget when my brother and I were young, Aunt Evelyn shared a cigarette with us to discourage us from ever smoking. It worked. Never even thought about taking up the habit. Thank you Aunt Evelyn.

“ I will never forget watching Evelyn build that little house by herself to try and have it ready when Curtis came home from the army. One tough little lady.

“ I will share a funny. Loved my Aunt Evelyn. When I was 9- years old, I spent the night with Marsha. When Aunt Evelyn finished preparing opossum for our meal that evening, she called us to the table. In my mind, there lay a large rat with an apple in its mouth. The look on my face was probably a horrifying one. No way was I going to eat it. When Aunt Evelyn brought out the hot dog that she had prepared for me, she started laughing. She was so tickled at my face of horror compared to my face of relief. She laughed so hard that she had to go outside to get her breath. As the night went on, she would laugh every time she thought of my supper moment.
