“ Keith, I am so very sorry for your loss. He was such a loving caring person. He was so proud of you. When we would call him he would tell her how well you took care of him. He was a special fellow. Praying for you and your family during this difficult time.

“ Mr. sego was always happy to see you ,with a hug, and a little token of his love for you. I remember when my first husband Graig was on chemo he brought over one of the biggest watermelons you ever see. We just couldn't believe it, it was cut in half and still that big! Then another time in church in his sweet humble mouth he asked me because Graig was sick from chemo, he asked me "does your ol boy like cookies? I said shoot I Don't if he does but I do! Lol we had a good laugh. But wouldn't you know it ,the next day for church he'd come in with big ol ice bucket full of cookies. Graig loved him and well we all both are laughing and having a great time in Heaven, say me a place. Love to the whole family and friends love Becky (Porterfield) Dorris
