She was a woman of strength, determination, and fierce independence. I carry many memories of her, some difficult, many deeply cherished. I remember her stories, her voice, the pride in her eyes when she spoke of her family, and the quiet moments we shared through music, conversation, and care. Though our relationship had its share of hardship, my love for her never wavered. I hope she knew that. I will always remember her with a full heart and hope she has found peace.

Our church group has been keeping her in our thoughts and prayers, and we were truly touched by y'all's replies. If you happen to know, would you be willing to share how she passed? We've been hoping for some clarity so we can continue to pray for her and her family with care.

Also, we were considering sending flowers and weren't sure whether it's better to order directly through the funeral website or to go through a local florist. Our concern is just making sure the arrangement arrives on time and looks beautiful for the service. Do you know if photos of the service might be shared afterward?

Robert and Cindy Ervin -- Nephew and Niece!!

We were not around Aunt Fannie Mae a whole lot, however, I know she prayed for us and really enjoyed having fun. The way we know this is that she was just like our Mother, Ruthie Lee (Mize) Ervin. I always enjoyed watching them interact, laughing and carrying on and what not. A deep woman of faith, I'm proud to have her as my aunt who we'll see again - when we meet the Lord in the air! Our deepest sympathies to her children, grandchildren, nieces and nephews that were very close to her

*Praying for y'all
With the Love of Jesus,
Robert and Cindy*
