“ To one of the most Honorable Men that I have ever met. You were the only Honorable Man at FOS. Your light has been moved to the skies to shine forth with those of your Fore-Fathers. Still a bright beacon, even when those around you were too dim and dull to see it because they couldn't get past their own pettiness. Those of Honor saw you and knew you as a Brother. Go and await your Brothers, we will be along directly, and then the party can really start! Hail the Honorable! Hail his Spirit! I Honor your God's, I drink at your well. I bring an undefended heart to our meeting places. I have no cherished outcomes, I will not negotiate by withholding, I am not subject to disappointment. I cleanse myself of all selfishness, resentments, critical emotions towards my fellow being. Self condemnation and ignorant misinterpretations of my life's experiences. I bathe myself in generosity, appreciation, emotions of praise towards my fellow being, self acceptance and enlightened understanding of my life's experiences. There shall be no task beyond our inner strength. Not goal beyond our outstretched palm. No prayer unanswered, no hunger unfulfilled, no hope unfounded or dream dismissed, for when we listen to our hearts song, the universe replies within. That was the first prayer that Look and I ever shared, and we shared it every time afterwards. It was he said, his favorite. Chaplain Michael Sims.

“ So much love and strength to the Family. Memories flood my mind of such wonderful conversations and laughter. Spending hours looking at old magazines, talking survival, hunting. Loki my friend, we will always Remember.

“ My heart goes out to the Siwik family! He always welcomed me in his home many times and always had great tales to tell me while i waited on Vic to go plow the field or whatever the heck he was doing. He even bailed me out of jail once when i was young and being an idiot. Not many people can say that about their friends parents. He was a good guy and a genuine soul and i know he loved his family!
