Ty Jenny!

Going miss uncle Fred so much..Mikey was so upset they had plans on him fully recovery and going fishing...uncle Fred said he would take him to place he could catch a big big catfish..

They cut up and really made a positive outta his recovery process.

But now time rest ..we love you uncle Fred and going miss ur calls and visits and everything...

“ *Uncle Fred's parents were not ivy..
They were Fred and Eula Melton that lived in Regan TN.
His birth parents were Riley Melton, Billy Melton, and sister named Martha Melton.
Wish this would be corrected outta due respect to Uncle Fred.*”

“ My Uncle Fred was always a hero to my now deceased brother because he was a truck driver. Joe ALWAYS drive a red truck. Uncle Fred and I had become very close after my mother, his sister, Martha Jane Melton Smith passed away. I talked to him on the phone and visited frequently. I'd drive down the road and he'd be up at his friend's house on the 4-wheeler and come flying down the road to meet my husband and myself. We camped at Next Lake about every other weekend and would call Uncle Fred to get him to come. He never did. Anyway he will be TRULY missed for sure. I love you Uncle Fred!!!”
