“ Hattie Lou, Nolan and Kay have been wonderful friends and neighbors of ours for many many years. Dixie Street was extra special because of them along with Beanie and Dorothy Nell Ward, Rex and Billie Todd, Ms Gardner, Truman and Doris Lewis and Mr. and Ms Melvin Hamilton. There are so many treasured memories! Hattie Lou always made the best sweet tea. After Nolan passed away and Hattie Lou met Mr. John Eason, he became an important part of the Dixie Street Family. He took excellent care of her. May God Keep his arms wrapped around Kay is our prayer. We love you, The Tony Rogers Family (Tony, Trent, Brian and Allison)

“ Hattie Lou be greatly missed. She taught the Eason family how to play a card game Owns then Mexican train Dominos. It was hard to beat Hattie Lou in Dominos.

She and John were able to go dancing for many years. I enjoyed watching John and Hattie Lou two stepping around the house She and John came to St Louis for many Easter and Thanksgiving celebrations. The two of them would peel 10 pounds of potatoes very quickly. Hattie Lou's recipes for cornbread dressing and potato casserole are staples in our family

She was a wonderful person and I am proud that she was in our lives
