“ She was a trailblazer in our family. She recycled before it was cool. She conserved when resources were abundant. She taught the youngsters before homeschooling was an alternative to public education. She loved the children and spoke our language even when we were no longer children. She loved family and showed us what pure love feels like. She loved laughter and found the bright sides of chaos. The sparkle of her blue eyes lit our world. She called us Stinkers. We knew that was something to be proud of. We were blessed. She was LOVED.

Stinker #4 ❤️

“ Our sweet Aunt Helen wore many hats during her lifetime. She was a nurturer, a caregiver to both of her parents, a full time nurse for her Mother, a big sister to her siblings, a second Mother to many of her nieces and nephews, a consoler and a counselor, a good story teller who loved to laugh, a gardener of both vegetables and beautiful flowers, a seamstress who made prize-winning quilts and embroidery. She took great pride in all she did. She loved her church and her faith never waivered. She loved her family dearly and was always ready to get in the car to visit with any of them on a moment’s notice. She was the family historian , saving articles from the newspaper at any mention of a marriage, birth, accolade, award or death. She preserved precious photos of her ancestors and relatives and knew their connections. Her memory never failed her. She was an environmentalist and made due with what she had and reused and repurposed so many items. She raised chickens and loved her animals, one being her collie named Lassie. At a period in her life she carried water from the well to the house daily and brought firewood into the home both for heat and cooking. She was a strong, kind and compassionate woman. She was loved by everyone and never complained about anything. Her legacy lives on with her family. We know there is a bright smile in heaven as she reunites with those gone before her. We will miss that bright smile here on earth and we all will miss our dear, sweet Aunt Helen.
