“ I loved my Uncle Junior so very much. I'm so thankful I've been able to spend many hours with him over the last several months. We've had some great chats. Usually about "old times". Some of the chats were about when he, my mom and their siblings were growing up. Some of the chats were about me when I was a little girl. Our last chat, one that I will never forget as long as I live was about Heaven. I'm so glad the Lord allowed me to share those special moments with him talking about the City of God. He said "Sandra Kay, I'm not long for this world now. I'm gonna get there prettty soon." I told him I would be right behind him some day. Now he has the answer. He knows "how God gets us there", and he knows how beautiful it is.

“ We are so sorry for your loss. Mr. Maness was a fine, Christian man. I loved to hear him sing and can still see him in my mind as he sang and led singing at Mazies Chapel Church. He will be greatly missed
