“ To the Family of Hugh Fesmire--Helen Keller Once Said: “When I recollect the treasure of friendship that has been bestowed upon me I withdraw all charges against life. If much has been denied me, much, very much has been given. So long as the memory of certain beloved friends lives in my heart I shall say that life is good.” I can say this about Hugh—He was a beloved friend of mine- I could write a book about Hugh and My friendship, however Reeds will not allow me to write that book- All my memories of Hugh are in different matters- Most are working with Hugh, Some are at the Retired luncheon we had at Grecians- One day at Grecians Hugh ask me to tell this one story about my Cousin getting his teeth knocked out with a chain saw- I said Hugh; I told that not long ago- He said I know; Tell it again that story is so funny- So I did- I will miss Hugh as well as the community he lived in-

“ To Mitchell and family. I'm so sorry to hear of Hugh's passing. I've known him my whole life (almost 75 years). I always admired him when I was a kid and followed him into the Air Force. I always enjoyed talking with him when I would be in Tennessee. Unfortunately, that was less frequent, than I wished. Pam and I send our condolences during this trying time. Glen and Pam Essary

“ I remember so well the many Sundays coming to church and getting a big smile from Mr. Fesmire. He was always in a good mood and was a fine man that I respected. I am so sorry the world doesn't have him any more, but so glad he is with his Lord.

“ Hugh was a good, kind man. Hugh and my husband, Clarence were such good friends for so many years. Hugh was right there for Clarence visiting him often during Clarence's final days. There were always good stories and lots of memories to share. I know he will be missed by lots of folks. Prayers for the family and God's sweet peace. Agnes Lemley

“ I remember many Sunday nights after church we would go to their house and have cake and drinks, or they would sometimes come to our house. Mr. Hugh was a card. Always smiling and having something funny to say. He always followed Gods path. Heaven go another good one.
