

James H. Johnson

July 21, 1941 - October 17, 2014

Mr. James Hoyd Johnson, age 73, of Scotts Hill passed away Friday, October 17, 2014 in Jackson.

Mr. Johnson worked at Decaturville Sportswear, on the pipeline for many years, and retired from the State of Tennessee Department of Transportation, where he was a road supervisor. He was a member of Liberty Church of Christ. His hobbies included fishing, deer hunting, farming, and socializing. He is survived by Bradley, Crystal and Hadley Barber (who Mr. Johnson considered to be his son, daughter-in-law and granddaughter!) all of Decaturville; his sisters, Dorothy Jo Lancaster, of Scotts Hill and Lounell (Glenn) Moore, of Rockwood; niece, Charlotte Barber, of Adamsville; Great niece and nephew, Lauren Renfroe and Luke Howell, of Adamsville; cousin, Diane Martin, of Scotts Hill and many other nieces, nephews, and cousins. He was preceded in death by his wife, Mary Lynn Johnson, his father, Hoyd Johnson, mother, Irene Johnson, and brother, Barry Johnson.

His funeral service will be Sunday, October 19, 2014 at 2 PM at Reed's Chapel in Scotts Hill with burial to follow in Liberty Cemetery. Visitation will be Saturday, 5 PM – 9 PM and Sunday 12 PM until service.