“ I am saddened to recently find out about Pig. I am the brother of Joy's old friend Trip and we spent some days hunting up there over 20 years ago. Pig may not even have remembered me these years, but I sure remember him and mention his name to Trip several times per year. Pig and Emily so, so showed the southern hospitality mentioned by another during our stay. One of the most lasting memories of my life was when there were four hunting days in a row that were -4 degrees below zero. Pig got up at 5am to make us the very best breakfasts of my life. Fresh pork, tomatoes, fried eggs in the pork fat ... wow! Such a breakfast was even better when we were facing long, cold hours sitting in a tree. What a great man and family -- Thank You.

“ So saddened by the passing of our beloved "Pig". I will always remember his gentle manner, a no nonsense temperament, and his constant smile. My many summer trips to Decaturville as a young boy are dotted with memories of Pig, Emilyanne, and the kids, Doug, Ronny, and Joy, who made my summers so special with their southern hospitality. I have fond memories of Pig taking us to the TN river to swim and taught me to water ski, hunting in the hills behind their house, and teaching this city boy what a wonderful place the Vise farm was. Doug, Ronnie, and Joy, you know I am there in my heart. Mike Murphy
