“ So many great memories, I worked with Kevin for years, but before that we were friends and hung out at his Mom and Dads in Forrest City. Years later working together and hanging out at his house in West Memphis, always a great friend and a great person!! So many memories. Prayers are going up for his Family.

“ Kevin... aka princess, I loved it when you called me " the queen of your double wide trailer". Great times working together. We got a long like brother and sister, sometimes wanting to choke each other and most of the time laughing and showing concern for each. Loved you dearly princess.

“ My sweet Kevin, even though we hadn't been able to see each for far too long, we could talk on the phone. I will miss being able to talk and laugh about growing up. Thank you for being my first little brother. So many wonderful memories of you that I will forever cherish. This world is a sadder place without you. You will be missed dearly. Rest easy until we are together again. Love you, Penny

“ Kevin, I will always remember you bringing Cooper home from the hospital, and me videoing you as you changed his clothes that very first time. You were a little awkward and oh, so gentle, like you were afraid of breaking him! Nathan talks about fishing, hunting and camping with you and the very dark night yall became stranded in the woods without a light. We have many fond memories of you and will always remember you with love and thanksgiving in our hearts for giving us Cooper! Love, Nana and Granddaddy

“ Kevin Riddell aka Turkey. Met you back in the 90s and we have been friends every since. Thank you my friend for putting up with me all these years. Even back in the 90s you were smart. Smart enough when it came to college football to not only to be an Arkansas football fan but also a Florida gator fan. That doubled your chances that “your team” would win on any given Saturday. You were the first Gatorback fan I ever met. While we may have disagreed which college football to root for (Go Vols), we never disagreed on loving the St Louis Cardinals. Playing golf with you and Jeff Jones in the Rick Jones memorial golf tournaments are my favorite golf memories. We had some great times together and we both enjoyed watching our kids grow up together and bragging on them to each other. You were always so proud of Cooper. I wish I knew how many fans and band kids we fed over the years from the grill in the parking lot at Jim Stowe Stadium. I would love to grill with you just one more time! I am going to miss you! RIP Kevin
