

Jason Jowers

August 20, 1978 - October 31, 2025

Jason “Papa” Jowers is survived by his loving wife, Pepsi (Stone) Jowers; two daughters, Shelby Jowers (Peyton Ellis) and Jaci Jowers (Mason Bedwell); his mother, Patricia Jowers; and his two amazing grandchildren, Ryder Ellis and Emersyn Ellis. He is also survived by his brother-in-law, Ronald Stone, and nephew, Rusty Stone. Jason was preceded in death by his father, Clifford Jowers, and his sister, Crystal Jowers. To know Jason was to love him. From his quick wit and sense of humor to his kind heart, he could light up any room and leave everyone laughing. If you didn’t know him well, you’d never guess the many health challenges he faced — he always carried himself with strength and positivity. Jason was more than a husband and father — he was the foundation of our little family. The one we all leaned on, the one who always had an answer, a plan, or a joke to make things better. He was our advice giver (whether we wanted it or not), our personal chef (because he could truly cook), our Mr. Fix-It, and the first one to lend a helping hand. We often called him “Dr. Jowers” because 99% of the time, he was right about whatever was going on. He was loved deeply and will be missed beyond measure. A celebration of Jason’s life will be held on Wednesday, November 5 at Reed’s Chapel from 3:00 p.m. to 9:00 p.m. Please come share memories and celebrate the incredible man he was.

“ I met Jason about 14 years ago when my tattooing career had just started. I remember the first tattoo I did on him and how the conversation just ended and flowed. Even at the time he was a complete "stranger" and his kind and humorous nature spoke volumes. Then fast forward years later, I got to tattoo him again and learned he was family of my best friend.....so glad to have gotten to know you and the love you have for your family. Much love to you all... "There is no death , only a change of worlds".

“ We are so saddened by our Brothers Jason's passing. We loved Jason very much he always was so kind to us. He always knew how to make us smile and laugh. He had the best sense of humor. When I finally came back into dad's life Jason was so kind. It was like he knew me his whole life. I will miss him so much I enjoyed seeing him when I came home to see dad. Jason was and always be my brother.
