“ You filled the shoes for many years of the older brother I didn't have. You lived life with a passion of which the likes I have never and most likely will never see again. A Die Hard Tennessee Volunteer Fan, Vol For Life, St. Louis Cardinals Fan, and had tattoos of both to prove it. I will never forget your kindness to me throughout the years. You will always live in my heart and be in every fiber in my soul. Until we meet again one fine day, rest easy brother and GO BIG ORANGE!!!! I LOVE YOU BIGTIME!!!! Reed Blankenship

“ JW was a true friend to me, my husband and family for over 30 years now. When I lost my husband, Larry Howell, a few years ago, JW wanted something of Larry's to have in his memory. I gave him one of Larry's beloved hats that he wore often. JW took this pic with that hat on for me. Many happy memories we all made together that I will treasure! Until we all meet again my friend.

“ The moment I met Dub, I was hooked on his energy and sense of humor. I've had a lot of laughs with him in a short amount of time. He'd cook me ribs when he was inclined to do so. Such a heartwarming person to be around and he will be truly missed. My utmost condolences to the family.
