

Jeffrey Daniel Davies

September 1, 1949 - January 20, 2026

Jeffrey Daniel Davies, born September 1, 1949, in Jackson, TN, was a lifelong resident of Lexington, a town he deeply loved and faithfully served. He passed away on Tuesday, January 20, 2026. Jeff's devoted parents were Walter Daniel "Dan" Davies and Cathleen Austin Davies, who raised him in Lexington and instilled in him the values of generosity, community, and compassion. He attended Lexington City School and graduated from Lexington High School in 1967. He then attended Jackson State Community College and served his country in the Army National Guard from 1970-1976. He married Jean Ann Wood in 1969 and together they had two children, Holly and Chad. A true son of Lexington, Jeff dedicated his life to the town and its people. He owned and operated Lexington Feed Mill, a place that reflected both his passion for agriculture and his love for conversation. From 1981-1987, Jeff served as Mayor of Lexington following a term as alderman, roles he accepted with a sense of servitude and honor. Jeff has a deep and abiding love for farming and for people. He could sit for hours watching cattle, talking with farmers, and learning about the land he cherished. Just as easily, he could share a beer with anyone- regardless of wealth, status, or background- and genuinely care about their life story. To Jeff, people mattered, and he treated everyone with the same respect and kindness. Later in life, Jeff experiences one of his most pivotal moments when he met his biological family. He was embraced by his brother and sister without hesitation, a reunion for which he remained grateful. Jeff is survived by children, Chad Davies and Holly Davies Myracle

(Brad); his longtime partner for many years, Barbara Anthony and her son, Frank N. Anthony; and his grandchildren, Aimee Hayes (John), Walt Davies, Kaylee Myracle, and Braden Myracle (Maeley). He was preceded in death by his parents, Dan and Cathleen Davies. Funeral services will be on Friday, January 23 at 2PM at Reed's Chapel with burial to follow in Middlefork Cemetery. Visitation will be on Thursday from 4PM-8PM and Friday from 10AM until service.

“ Jeff and I were diaper buddies and were lifelong friends. Like all of us, he had some rough patches in his life, but as his obituary says, he never lost his love of people. The last time I saw Jeff was at Phil Belew's funeral. I was disappointed in the turnout from the old days, but Jeff was there, sitting with Mark Montgomery and me. I wish I could be there for Jeff's sendoff but age has caught up with me, too. RIP, my friend. And when you get to heaven, hoist a couple with Phil for me.
