There are people that lighten up another's life with their warmness, their smile, and kindness from within their Hearts. One that has given of herself by being these , wonderful things- Jerita, because that is " always Jertia". She had the light to pass it to us--- Sending our Hearts to Family- Judy Williams David Pope,

“ Jerita meant the world to me she was the greatest friend I could have asked for. She was always there for me whenever I needed her most of the time before I even told her I told her I did .I'll forever love Jerita and miss her we did so many things together and had planned do many more things we wanted to do together. Ill never forget the last time I drove her to the doctor in Memphis and she wanted to go to To Tunica and we did and the best time ever I'll cherish that day with her forever. ”
