

Jimmie Ray Gerhardt Sr.

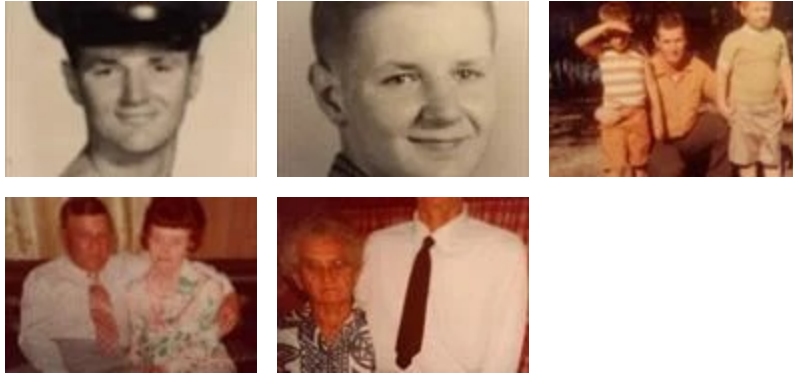

December 5, 1942 - August 14, 2018

Jimmie Ray Gerhardt, Sr. passed away peacefully in his sleep after a short illness in Jackson, TN. Jimmie was born December 5, 1942 in Cave-in-Rock, IL to Gordon and Margaret Gerhardt. He graduated from Cave-in-Rock High School. Jimmie attended Bethel College and graduated from Mid-Continent Baptist College. During his early life he drove a truck. Later he became an Insurance Salesman working for several different companies. He earned the Life Underwriters Training Council Fellow (LUTCF) designation and later the Life Insurance Marketing and Research (LIMRA) designation. Jim primarily sold life and health insurance to families and individuals. In 1971, he was ordained a Minister of the Gospel at Wildersville Baptist Church by Rev. Howell Gossett. Besides his parents, he was preceded in death by his wife, Renise Gerhardt. He is survived by his children, Jimmy Ray Gerhardt, Jr. and wife Lorria; Tim Gerhardt and wife Lisa; Melissa Helms and husband Tony; and Melinda Landrum. He also leaves his grandchildren, Rhett, Trevor, Caroline, and Aiden. Graveside services will be on Thursday, August 16 at 11AM at Jones Cemetery. Visitation will be on Wednesday from 5PM-7PM at Reed's Chapel in Lexington.

“ So sorry for the loss of your father!
Melinda and Belinda, I remember you guys so well from class. Your girls made the class so cheerful with you outstanding humor. You had a good Dad and your Christian family will see you through with your grief. Hope all goes well for you guys. Love you, Peggy Wentworth
