Very few will ever understand, how Middleburg can make such a great man. Knowing that freedom is where you must stand. Being the first to defend your homeland.

Fighting your family is a thing from the past, decorations each year so the memories last.

A creek that runs flat, and fishing with canes. Sitting under a tin roof and listening to rain.

Cooking a hog at the community center. Plenty of food for all who enter.

Hayrides for those who help clear a field. Friendship for life for those far and near.

My neighbor who lived at the top of the hill. Memories flow fondly and they always will. Linda Houston Steiger

Thank you to all who sent their condolences. He was truly a wonderful husband, father, and grandfather. He was a wonderful uncle to all our nieces and nephews and always enjoyed their visits. Our hearts are broken and I feel a part of me went with him. I praise God for giving us 70 years together. Thank you all for your kindness.
