“ To Wanda, Cheryl, Ronnie, & all the descendants, my heart aches for you all & I will pray for God to grant you the strength & comfort to adjust to life without John Ray. I know he & my daddy were buddies, & in all the years of Daddy buying tires from him (that ALWAYS included a visit), I never heard anything but good things said about your daddy, husband, & granddad. He was also always sweet to me & I never saw him without a smile on his face. As I still say about my own daddy, he's now something that none the ones left behind, can say. He's now perfect, whole, & happy, & worshipping at the feet of the Father! <3

“ John Ray was a special kind of guy. I remember going to his tire shop with Daddy and listening to them talk about farming, the cost of living, and just how much that replacement tire SHOULD cost. I am thankful for the memories! My prayers are with Wanda and the Couch family.

“ *So many memories of this Awesome man...
He had always been such a great friend, made sure I had good tires when my kids were and the funds just wasn't there...
Have spent many hours talking and listening to his wisdom...
Heaven gained a angel but I truly have lost a great friend...
Prayers for his wonderful wife and all his family...
They all are such a wonderful family to me...*

“ Sorry to hear of John Ray's passing. Sending sympathy and love to Wanda and all the family; I have lifelong memories with John and his sisters especially when I visited with my schoolmate cousins who were his neighbors. Reconnected in later years as community friends and workers. Rest in peace, friend , Joyce Todd
