“ Johnny might have married end of the family but from the first day he was there he became family. He and Kay loved each other so much and it showed and they loved their children, grandchildren, and great grandchildren with everything they had. Johnny was always fun to be around and I remember a lot of special memories through the family reunions and living so close to each other. He will be missed, but I know he is so happy right now being with K again and being in Heaven with our Lord Jesus. Until we meet again, my brother, my cousin, my friend.

“ Over 10 years of playing golf with John and enjoying every game and or defeat. He talked so often of family and fishing. The many times talking about missing a loved one we both could relate about.
