“ To the family of Mr. John Dee,
We are more than saddened by the loss of such a Great Man and Friend who have so much to the folks he encountered thru the years. He was a go-to person on many occasions over the years, sharing his wisdom and thoughts on many subjects. I developed great respect for his suggestions and guidance. Without reservation, I believe Heaven has gained another Angel as Mr. John gained his wings.

“ Bro John will always be remembered by many people. He has touched many people's lives. We loved to hear him preach so much if he was preaching close to our home we went to hear him. I loved the way he preached he could say more in 20 minutes than some preachers could in 40 minutes. I always said he put that train on the track and followed it to toe point. He did not go in circles like some preachers did. We sure do love him and Janie both. They may not have their own children but many children loved them.

“ I can never forget Bro. John D., one homecoming day at Bolen's Chapel. Our youngest son, Chuck, was maybe 4 yrs. old at the time, & when Bro. Small asked if anyone else wanted to sing, Chuck's hand went up. My stomach did flip flops, for fear of what Chuck was about to do, but up to the front he went. Bro. Small handed him a mic & that's all our little ham needed. In his little pre-school voice, Chuck asked, "Will somebody play the piano for me?". Jimmy Steve Lewis gladly obliged him & off they went with "Jesus Loves Me", followed by "The B-I-B-L-E". You can imagine the kick Bro. John D. got from that, & when Chuck was making his way back to our pew, he said, "Son, you gonna be President one day." We all laughed a lot & Bro. John D.'s famous smile & twinkling eyes, that day, is one of (if not THE) sweetest memories from Chuck's early childhood. I'm so glad we have this on video, even though it's been AWOL a few years. I can't wait to find it & re-live what one very special man allowed my toddler to do. <3
