“ Anna Laura, I am so sorry to hear of John's death, I as so many share your sadness.
You, John and I go back to schools days at good old DCHS. Some years John and I rode the same bus to school. He was always friendly and joking, but never loud.
Through the years when I would be home visiting , I would stop by the Bank to see Margaret. He would always welcome me , and tell me some kind of Tale...The last one I remember, he said I'm having a terrible time with these women, everyone is running a different temperature, and each one when passing the thermostat changes it. They were wearing it out. Can you believe I HAD TO PUT A LOCK ON IT ! Some days they drive me crazy, Can you tell me what to do ? All this with a smile on his face..
My Condolence to all the family . God Bless each of you.
