

Judy Myracle Bowman

June 10, 1949 - April 18, 2023

Judy Myracle Bowman died peacefully at home on Tuesday, April 18, after a long illness. She was preceded in death by her parents, Lawton and Betty Page Myracle, and by her husband, Wayne Bowman. She is survived by her three children: Page Boen McBay (Doug), Laura Boen Dyer (Richard), and Russell Bowman (Amy). Judy had many grandchildren she cherished: Brandon and Grant McBay, Anna and Avery Dyer, Deron Riffle, Harley Bowman Martin (Lane), Niki Kelso (Jason), and Russ McBay. Her great-grandchild is Harper Martin who was a complete joy to her. She is also survived by her brother, Jerry Myracle (Belinda) and her special niece and nephew, Angie Holmes (Cary) and Rob Myracle (Mende.). Judy also was preceded in death by her sweet dog, Oscar.

Judy was a social worker by occupation and did it exceptionally well without a formal education in the field. She was an amazing advocate for people with special needs and was devoted to inclusion, having been the director of Easter Seals in Lexington and later working for TAP (The Alternative Program) in Jackson. She enjoyed watching her father race cars growing up and later watched her son, Russell, race for many years. Her pleasures in life were simple, with family being the most important. Judy loved to brag on her grandchildren and was very proud of each of them. She had recently become an official member of First United Methodist Church after attending for many years. She especially enjoyed the Deborah Sunday school class. Judy was an avid fan of Rod Stewart's and even received a get-well card from him.

The family will receive visitors on Thursday, April 20, at Reed's Chapel in Lexington from 4pm-8pm. The funeral service will be Friday, April 21, at 10am at Reed's Chapel with burial to follow at Parker's Crossroads Cemetery. In lieu of flowers, memorials may be made to either First United Methodist Church in Lexington or the American Cancer Society.

“ I am at such a loss and so shocked! I was unaware Judy was not well. Judy was a Saint, knew how to love deeply and devoted her life to help others. She was the best of the best at her job and exceptionally respected in the field. Dear Judy, rest in peace and reap your just rewards, my Friend! Please take good care of this one, Lord.
