“ My name is James McQueen and I would just like to say I met Judy in 1961. My wife Nell Douglas and I have always thought a lot of her. She was always so nice. I'm sorry I missed out coming to Reeds Funeral Home. I had just got home from the doctor and I laid down to rest and woke up to late. I will miss her so much. God Bless Her and her Husband Billy I love them both.

“ Judy and I were neighbors from earliest childhood. We loved each other like family. My heart is flooded with so many happy memories and I know she is filled with the peace and joy that only heaven can give. Rest in peace my friend. No more wheel chairs, difficulty talking and moving, no pain in a brand new body that will last forever. One day, we'll laugh and talk together again. I love you sweet friend. Lillie Manley
