“ My sweet beautiful mom. Having you for a mother has truly been a blessing. You've always been not only my mom, but my best friend. Although I know you're in a far better place, I miss you more than words can express, but I take comfort in knowing you're no longer in pain and I will see you again someday. I love you to the moon and back

“ My mother Judy harville was an amazing woman and the best mom u could ever ask for she was always there for her family and she took amazing care of us kids no matter what or how she felt she still went on she was never the type to complain about anything. She was so hard headed but I love her anyway and before she got sick she always had to have her ducks in a roll as she would say and if one got out of a roll it would mess her up but she got it taken care of she was just good like that. I love u more than u will ever know and my heart is just so broken without u here but I know your in a better place and your not in anymore pain but I am just so lost right now without u here with me I hope one day I can be half the woman u was. Love u to the moon and back mom RIP..

“ My mother Judy Carrol Potter Harville was the most unselfish caring loving woman I've ever met. I am so lucky to be able to call her my mother. I've always loved her so much. I miss her so much. She suffered and pained for so long. But some how she was always worried about everyone else and not herself. I know she finally got her legs back. The ones she used to use to run up my leg and jump off my knee cap to box my jaws and set me straight when I needed the most. Lol😂. Thank you mom so much for everthing. You will always be loved and missed and NEVER be forgotton. Thanks for giving me life. Love and miss you always you beutiful angel in heaven. You finally get to see papa and granny and all of our other lost loved ones. I know your watching over all of us. dad and everyone else miss you so much. I know if I can strive to be as good hearted of a person as she was I will get to see her again someday and hug her neck and tell her just how much I've missed her everyday. Love you mom your baby boy

“ I probably spent just ad much time at Judy's house as I did our own growing up. The best home made biscuits ever. I remember the soft tone when she spoke and when she laughed too. Judy you will be trully missed. But I know you are in a better place , sitting at the right hand of God. I love you dearly.

My sweet cousin Judy who I loved very much. So sorry I didn't get up to see you. Time gets away from us and for some this life is over BUT sweet Judy you are gone from here but I know I'll see you again in a new body without pain or illness. Love you forever and I will see you again.
