“ I cannot remember not knowing this sweet lady. When I was very young, I would often visit my grandmother, Mrs. Allie Mae Yarbro. I can recall going into the florist shop with grandmother and was overwhelmed by the aroma of the flowers. This nice lady would always talk to me and make me feel so welcome. I can vividly recall on one occasion that this lady took me into the back of the shop. She showed me around and we look at the flowers and then she opened a door where the flowers were kept and gave me a fresh flower. I will never forget this moment in my life. I did not know the lady's name at that time, but the event was etched into my memory forever.

The Christmas centerpiece on grandmother's table was made by Mama Kat. It was looking a little shaggy after many years (about 50 - 60 years), but it still was the center attraction of our Christmas Table and to all of our family it was still as beautiful as the day it first took its place. The last time I saw the center piece, it was upstairs in one of the bedrooms.

To Elaine and all family members, I know your Mother will be missed by you, but she was such a blessing to all of your family and to all who knew her.

She is rejoicing in Heaven with the Lord.

“ Mama Kat was one of the hardest working and sweetest ladies I've ever known. She was always a part of any effort to help folks as long as she was able. I've never heard one word spoken against her in any way. She has many stars in the crown that she will cast at the feet of the savior because she touched many showing the love of Christ.

“ Kat: You have been my step-mother for 47 years, 10 years longer than my biological mother. No one ever had a more dear, helpful and loving mother or step-mother than you have always been. You always seemed to be a virtual clone of my own loving mother. We will all miss you greatly but it's so comforting to know that we will meet up with you again and that time there will be no end.
