“ As hard as it is for us to be without Uncle Kay we know he was ready to be with Aunt Nancy. They were such a wonderful example of what a true "couple" is. There are so few married people that care for each other to the degree these two did. Kay had so many close calls with health issues and we always said he came through it with God and Nancy's determination. The calls at Christmas were always such a wonderful treat. The visits to TN to see them were not often enough but we all knew the Love was there going both ways. Sherrie you are a Super daughter for all you did/do. God give you comfort as you move forward. Much love to you and your children. Larry and Sue Wyatt family
