“ For 45 years he was my brother in law, and like my brother .He took me in at a rough time in my life, and was kinda rough on me trying to help me to snap out of depression through my divorce.. He has fed me when i was hungry, and i could go on. He was just a amazing person who loved his family and his job and life.. He will be forever missed in me and my sons life and he will never be forgotton.. We love you Larry.. Fly high and look after all the ones that went before you..... your sister in law.. Linda Kay
